Food for Thought

For the week of July 24, 2011

(Questions and scriptures for further personal study)

1. In this weekend's message we heard about God's call for us to "watch ourselves" and make sure we aren't causing others to sin. What guidance do the following verses give to help us be aware that we're headed in the right direction and not causing others to stumble?

Psalm 139:23-24

Proverbs 15:31

Proverbs 27:6

Proverbs 27:17

2. While confronting someone can sound like a daunting task, it can also lead to positive change when done in the way God calls us to. What guidance does Galatians 6:1-5 give on how to approach those who may be causing others to sin?

3. Another way to help those struggling with sin is to be a positive example. What guidance do the following verses give in how to demonstrate our faith in the way God intended?

Colossians 3:12

Ephesians 4:2

Ephesians 4:15

1 John 3:18

Which of these are most important for you to remember in the coming weeks?
