Sin is our willful, deliberate, frontal assault against a holy God.

TAKING IT HOME

1. Chris said that the cross clears the way for God to work in us and through us. Are there any areas you can think of that you'd like to see God work in or through you?

2. Take a moment and write or say a brief prayer of thanks to Jesus for what he did for you at the Cross and what he has done for you since.

2. What's your response to Chris' statement, "Sin is our willful, deliberate, frontal assault against a holy God"?

3. This weekend, we looked at the different responses of various people who watched the crucifixion. Looking back on your spiritual journey, can you think of times when you could relate to any of those people?

QUICK REVIEW

Looking back at your notes from "There's No 'Maybe'", was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. As we heard this weekend, the cross was necessary because of sin, and the spiritual death and separation from God that comes from it. Spiritual death is not necessarily a feeling people have but a condition they are in. How do the following passages describe what it means for someone to be spiritually dead?

Ephesians 2:1-3

Titus 3:3

Romans 3:10-18

These passages point toward our absolute need for God's forgiveness and grace in our lives. Have there been any times in your life when the realization of your own sinfulness and God's forgiveness particularly caught your attention?

How could remembering a time like this help you continue to show the same kind of love and grace toward others?

2. When Jesus died on the cross for our sins, it made it possible for us to have eternal life and a relationship with God. What do the following passages say about what God does for anyone who steps over the line and gives Jesus the steering wheel of their life?

Colossians 2:13-14

Titus 3:4-7

Ephesians 2:4-10

Which of these things is most meaningful to you?

How can what God did for you motivate you to serve him?

3. Although Jesus' death provided for the forgiveness of our sins, we still face an ongoing struggle with sin and our sinful nature. What insights about freedom from sin and our responsibility to fight it do you see in the following verses?

Galatians 5:13-15

Romans 6:11-14

Too often Christians try to avoid sin using just their own power rather than relying on God's power. How could John 15:4-5 help us to rely on God's strength rather than our own?
